TEAM BUILDING NEWS!

Sabre and Warriors Launch

Esprit De Corps Corporate Events USA

Internationally renowned Australian corporate team building company “Sabre Corporate Development”, and Hollywood’s premier military, leadership and team advisors “Warriors Inc” have joined forces to create “Esprit De Corps - Corporate Events” for the US team building market!

This powerful alliance sees a truly unique suite of corporate team building and development programmes launched into the US market. Imagine being able to pick from a huge range of events that includes everything from having your team undertake highly tailored military missions , to making their very own blockbuster films or staging their own haute couture catwalk fashion shows? There’s everything from serious fun to serious outcomes to enhance corporate meetings and develop people and relationships!

Sabre Corporate Development has been designing and delivering high end corporate team building and development approaches since 1988, and are regarded globally as pioneers and innovators of corporate business games, simulations and activities. In its 20th year of operation the USA was the next exciting step on the Sabre journey, and the Warriors Inc team were the perfect people to carry the torch forward based on their profound experience with teamwork, leadership and innovation.

Warriors Inc. Is the brainchild of Marine Corps veteran Captain Dale Dye and it has carved a truly unique niche for itself as the very top advisor to the likes of Steven Spielberg and Oliver Stone on productions such as Saving Private Ryan, Alexander, Band of Brothers and Platoon. Captain Dye and his team of former military experts have imparted tactical, leadership and teaming skills to top actors, directors and crews alike. They have also pioneered a highly successful and innovative business themselves and can now add a powerful suite of corporate team events and programmes to their impressive capabilities.

“It’s an exciting moment for both organisations” says Sabre founder and Managing Director Talan Miller, “here we have a unique opportunity to export some great Aussie know-how to the world’s biggest team building market”.
